

Francis J. Carney Francis J. Carney is a graduate of Boston College and of the George Washington University School of Law. He is Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, a member of the Supreme Court's Advisory Committee on the Rules of Civil Procedure and also its Advisory Committee on Model Utah Civil Jury Instructions. He serves as co-chair of the Utah State Bar's Character and Fitness Committee. He is well-known for his various civil trial advocacy seminars. Mr. Carney received the "Excellence in Advocacy" award in September 2009 from the Utah Association for Justice for "Outstanding Professional Accomplishment," the State Bar's "Professionalism Award" in November 2007 for an attorney representing the highest standards of fairness, integrity, and civility, and a "Distinguished Service Award" by the Utah State Bar in September 2000 for the teaching of trial skills. Mr. Carney yearly mediates in excess of one hundred medical malpractice, bad faith, and complex personal injury cases.
fjc@fjcadr.com FJC-ADR, LLC.