

Randy has been a CPA practicing in Salt Lake City for over 37 years. He has been a partner in a national CPA firm, and has served in private industry as a VP of Finance for a publicly owned company in the transportation industry. Randy is currently a sole practitioner that specializes in tax compliance and planning, accounting, auditing and software consulting for small and medium sized businesses, including law firms. Randy also provides forensic accounting and litigation support to law firms. Randy can be reached at rhuizenga@foremostaccounting.com. His website is www.foremostaccounting.com.